

Developing Team Trust

Introduction

Great teams are built on mutual trust and rapport. Explore the leader's role in facilitating teamwork: from establishing ground rules and clear goal, to promoting trust and managing the team.

Audience

Team leaders and managers

Objectives

- Identify behaviours that build and destroy team trust
- Recognise how trust affects teamwork, participation and corporation
- Analyse how different world views can affect the ability of individuals to build trust
- Facilitate team members in understanding each other's world views

Content

- Learn how to build a trusting co-operative team
- Learn how you can change group culture to build team trust

